THE CORSICA CLASSIC YACHTING ASSOCIATION OPENS UP THE MEDITERRANEAN REGATA BALL

NAPOLEON REGATES 1st Ed 20-25TH JULY 20

Paris, Washington DC, 17.07.2020, 23:24 Time

USPA NEWS - The Corsica Classic Yachting association has the honor of opening the regatta ball in the Mediterranean in this year 2020. This first edition of the Régates Napoléon will bring together the most beautiful classic - and modern - sailboats within the walls of Tino Rossi port in Ajaccio for 5 days, from July 20 to 25, 2020. Initially scheduled from May 20 to 25, 2020, this brand new regatta on the Mediterranean circuit - CIM and IRC gauge - becomes, following all the cancellations of the races this spring, the first regatta of the season.

Thanks to the support of the Corsican Chamber of Commerce and Industry, the Corsican Region and the city of Ajaccio, this event dedicated to the art of navigation and the art of living will be able to see the light of day at the heart of the summer season.

The fact that the Corsican Chamber of Commerce and Industry is the official partner of this event has proven to be obvious. The association is particularly pleased to have been able to work in partnership with the support of the CCI of Corsica which has been able to adapt to the expectations of such an event and warmly thanks all of its private and institutional partners.

The concept ? Gather enthusiasts of yachting and Corsica, on a 5-star nautical stadium at a time of year when the thermal wind blows at full speed to enjoy the sun and the long evenings of July in the heart of the imperial city.

The Régates Napoléon invite both classic and modern yachts to come and compete in the Gulf of Ajaccio. An unprecedented test for enthusiasts with imperial sailing conditions ... In anticipation of the bicentenary of the disappearance of Napoleon in May 2021, the Regattas Napoleon put in the spotlight in the imperial city, the history of the heritage and a long tradition of Ajaccian sailing. On the program, 5 days of regattas in the Gulf of Ajaccio, with a fleet moored within the grounds of Tino Rossi port and entertainment on land in compliance with the sanitary measures in force.
